

Trips and Travel News

Thursday, June 27th Harbor Lights

Join us as we depart at 9 am for Dunkirk historical Lighthouse and Veteran's Museum where we will meet our guide. Climb to the top of the 60 foot tower for a magnificent view of Lake Erie. Tour the keepers home for an idea of what life was like as a lighthouse keeper. There is also a military museum on the grounds. Next delight in a waterfront view of the lake at Windjammers Restaurant for a delicious buffet luncheon. After lunch we will see the Barcelona Lighthouse, the only natural gas lit lighthouse in the world. We will take a break with a refreshing ice cream cone (included) before we stroll around the Dunkirk Boardwalk Market and the Central Avenue Pier. Arrive in back in Akron at 6 pm.

The fee for this trip will be :
$42 for Newstead residents
$62 for nonresidents

Thursday, July 25th Frank Lloyd Wright

We will be departing from the Senior Center at 9:45 am and travel along the Seaway Trail to the Isabelle R Martin House at Graycliff. Enjoy the spectacular lake vistas from the balconies of the summer home built for Darwin's wife. After touring Graycliff, we will enjoy a family style lunch at Ilio DiPaolo's. After dining we will visit the Darwin Martin House Complex; perhaps Wright's greatest "Prairie House". The remainder of the tour will be of 3 other Wright structures viewed from the comfort of our coach. Return to Center at 5:30.

The fee for this trip will be :
$56 for Newstead residents
$76 for nonresidents

Thursday, August 22nd Chautauqua Belle Cruise

Depart from Center at 9 am. Relax and live the life of days gone by aboard the Chautauqua Belle, a real steamboat, for a Chicken BBQ Cruise. Her gentle puff of steam will glide you along the upper half of Chautauqua Lake for 1 3/4 hours while you learn the importance of steamboats in the growth of the area! The Belle is only one of four existing true steamboats left in the United States. Next you'll be met by the Chef and his staff at the Brick Village Gourmet. First, learn all about how they created their Concord Grape seed Vinaigrette during the salad dressing lesson and enjoy a salad sample with this unique dressing. Then, experience a lesson in desserts. Learn the ins and outs of how the pros make those mouth watering treats. Of course, a dessert for each. Following your "classes", shop for candy, specialty gifts and more at Webb's Candy. Return to Center at 5:30 pm.

The fee for this trip will be :
$48 for Newstead residents
$68 for nonresidents

Tuesday, September 24th Simpler Times

Learn of simpler times as you travel the scenic country roads on this guided tour to Amish country. Begin your day with a complete Amish home tour. A small gift shop is available for home-made jellies, hand crafted items and baked goods. Lunch will be in an Amish home. Your meal will be served family style and includes chicken, plus mashed potatoes w/ gravy, vegetables, homemade bread and pies with coffee and tea. Each of you will be able to take a buggy ride. Visit an English 1800's school house complete with its original blackboard, double seats, double door entrance, books and lunch buckets. Your "teacher" will demonstrate the rules of readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic. You'll also learn some 1800's children's games. (Rest room available at lunch only, coach rest room at other times. Smoking and photo taking is not permitted. The Amish do not have insurance, you are at your own risk.) You may use personal checks and cash (bring small bills). Sorry, credit cards are not accepted. Depart Center at 8 am-return at 7 pm.

The fee for this trip will be :
$42 for Newstead residents
$62 for nonresidents
